Create an empathy map to understand the FitBuddy customer/user from four perspectives — what they Say, Think, Do, and Feel — in relation to the fitness and wellness problem addressed by the project.

SAYS	THINKS
SAYS • “I want to stay fit and healthy.” • “I need simple guidance that I can follow every day.” • “I want to track my fitness progress easily.”	THINKS • Thinks about improving health and maintaining a regular routine. • Wants a convenient and personalized fitness solution. • Worries about losing motivation or missing workouts.
PERSONA Name: Fitness-focused User Role / User Type: FitBuddy User	PERSONA Name: Fitness-focused User Role / User Type: FitBuddy User
DOES	FEELS
DOES • Tracks or plans daily fitness activities. • Uses fitness information to monitor progress. • Tries to maintain healthy habits and exercise regularly.	FEELS • Motivated when progress is visible. • Frustrated when routines are difficult to maintain. • Satisfied when fitness goals become easier to manage.

Project Focus: FitBuddy — a customer-centric fitness and wellness solution designed to help users manage fitness activities, track progress, and maintain healthy routines.
